THE MARKETS

The sudden flurry in the wheat market of Portland yesterday had no effect on local conditions. In fact, there was very little wheat being offered here that would grade for milling, and for this reason, the Portland quotations on bluestem have no effect on the grade offered here. Yesterday, the mills were offering 80 cents.

The egg market continues weak, with offerings from 30 to 32 cents cash, and 32 to 34 cents in trade.

The onion market is strong with every indication that prices will advance within a few days.

RAILROAD CONNECTIONS

(Oregon City Enterprise.)
The proposed connection between the Willamette Valley Southern and the Southern Pacific, a matter that is now with the state railway commission, is an important issue to Clackamas county farmers who are finding a market in cities south of Mount Angel, the terminus of the local electric road. The defense of the Southern Pacific, the only one of the two companies involved to oppose the connection, is weak. Officials of the larger road claim that there is no need of a connection at Mt. Angel and that most of those who have signed petitions asking for the connection between the lines are not shippers or directly interested in shipments from points of the Willamette valley south to points south. This claim is made despite the fact that the Malalla grange as a body is behind the petition for the connection, that merchants, farmers and other business men in Mt. Angel, Monitor, Liberal and other towns in that section signed it liberally.

German Munitions Are Threatened by Fire

New York, Dec. 27.—For the first time since bomb plots attracted governmental attention, fire today threatened destruction of ammunition destined for Germany, when a blaze of an unknown origin broke out in a warehouse at 200 West Houston street. This housed 3,000,000 rounds of high power cartridges, thousands of pistols and Springfield rifles besides a number of modern field pieces stored by Robert Von Cleff at the outbreak of the war.

WHY EDITORS ARE POOR

(Exchange.)
A child is born in the neighborhood; the attending physician gets $10. The editor gives the loud-mouth youngster and the happy parents a send-off and gets $0.

When it is christened the clergyman gets $10 and the editor gets $0. It grows up and marries. The editor publishes another long-winded article and tells a dozen lies about the "beau-tiful and accomplished bride." The clergyman gets $10 and a piece of cake and the editor gets $0.00.

In course of time it dies. The doctor gets $25 to $1,000, and the undertaker gets from $50 to $200, the editor publishes a notice of its death and an obituary two columns long, lodge and society resolutions, a lot of poetry and a free card of thanks and gets $0.00. (No wonder so many editors get rich.)

DIG OUT THE GAS WAGON.

Ontario, Cal., Dec. 27.—Crawlers here sent salvage crews today to dig out the 20 automobiles buried in sand along the valley boulevard during the terrific windstorm which swept this district last night. Passengers were brought here.

No improvement was shown this morning in the condition of John Wisdom, of High Grove, injured by flying debris. He has a chance to recover, however.

AMERICAN LOST

Washington, Dec. 27.—Secretary of State Lansing announced this afternoon that Consul Bristow's report that W. J. Leigh, an American was aboard the Japanese liner Yashiki Maru, when she was torpedoed without warning, had decided officials to make an investigation. Although Leigh did not have a passport, the government would give him its full protection. If it developed, as reported, that he had an English passport, America would not act.

GOETHALS SCORES JOHNSON.

Washington, Dec. 27.—With the Panama canal income less by $300,000 than the outgo Major General Goethals in his report published today declared zone officials found with "chagrin and humiliation" that Dr. Emery Johnson who prepared toll rates was aware of discrepancies in some charges, which later forced the government to change the rulings and compels refunding a large amount.

GIVES FORD POINTER

Tracy, Cal., Dec. 27.—E. J. Davine believes he can give Henry Ford valuable pointers on peace making. On Christmas day he invited eight guests to dinner. They represented the warring nations of Europe. Turkey, chicken and other delicacies were served to Davine's miniature "peace commission." Harmony prevailed during the entire session without the aid of the police, who were held in readiness.

NAVY YARD WAGES RAISED

Washington, Dec. 27.—Wage increases in 15 navy yards and naval stations throughout the country in 10 different trades were announced by Secretary of the Navy Daniels today.

Marine Island and Puget Sound yards were included. The increases average 20 to 25 cents a day over the maximum pay of each trade.
